

CAREGIVER CONNECTIONS

AN EDUCATIONAL WEBINAR SERIES

Helping a Loved One with Declining Capacity: A discussion with attorney Jonathan Williams

Thursday, January 26th from 1-2 PM EST

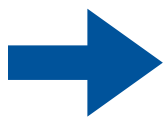

Helping a loved one with declining capacity

- When a loved one needs your help but resists it
- When a loved one is making poor decisions that are harming their health or financial well-being
- What legal tools are available, when can they be used, and what do they do?
- What tools are available outside of legal documents and courts?

Jonathan Williams, Attorney at Clarity Legal

Jonathan Williams is an elder law and estate planning attorney based in the Triangle area. He holds three degrees from Wake Forest University, including his law degree. He is a co-author of The Ultimate Caregiver Guide, a guide to the practical aspects of caregiving, including legal issues, managing finances, arranging caregiving resources, and other issues.

Have questions about the highly anticipated new Alzheimer's treatment, Lecanemab? Then mark your calendar for Dr. Daniel Parker on Thursday, February 16th at 1PM as he'll be providing an update on the new drug therapy.
