
CAREGIVER CONNECTIONS

AN EDUCATIONAL WEBINAR SERIES

Understanding Long Term Services & Supports in the Healthcare Continuum

Wednesday, May 31st at 1:00 PM EST

This presentation provides a comprehensive understanding of what long-term care options are available for older adults. This includes both in-home and facility-based services and how services are funded. Information may be particularly helpful as one is starting to plan for their later years and when navigating resources in the aging network.

Lisa Hoskins, MSW, LCSW

Lisa is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) and is the caregiver support program manager at the Center for Volunteer Caregiving in Cary. Her career focus has been working in healthcare and aging settings serving those in hospice care and the ALS community. She works with both patients and family caregivers and is a strong advocate for self-care, respite services, and living the best life one can.
